

Advisory Board

Dr Sandy Gupta
MD FRCP

Consultant Cardiologist Whipps Cross and BartsHealth NHS Hospitals Trust London, UK

Dr Gupta has been Consultant Cardiologist at Whipps Cross and St Bartholomew's Hospitals, London, UK since 1999.

He completed his undergraduate medical degree at St. George's Hospital Medical School, London in 1988. His clinical training in Cardiology have included posts at St. Bartholomew's, King's College and St. George's Hospitals, London.

He has been involved in the research area of 'inflammation and heart disease' and was awarded a British Heart Foundation (BHF) research fellowship. Author of text-book, over 40 peer-published papers and editorials and several book chapters.

- Trustee for Education for Health, UK.
- Associate Clinical Lead NE London Cardiac and Stroke Network.
- Chair, Steering Group, NHS London-funded Refugee Doctors Programme.
- Previous Member, BHF Prevention and Care Committee.
- Previous Member, Heart Disease Advisory Group, DoH.
- Previous Chair, BHF Strategy Group on CVD in Ethnic Minorities.

Involvement in several projects with NHS London/Olympics 2012 Health Legacy initiatives.

Has given delivered over 250 invited Guest Lectures at Symposia in over 70 different countries plus numerous voluntary, community and school talks on heart disease awareness.